

Get Some Adventures

Our mission is to provide outdoor enthusiasts with inspiring adventure ideas and the resources they need to make planning trips easy and affordable.

Meet Kelly & Lee

We have been traveling around the world together for over 10 years. In 2015 we decided to leave our “regular” lives behind and travel full time helping connect outdoor people with awesome adventures. We have both been affiliated with many outdoor groups over the years and enjoy meeting new people and helping outdoor organizations grow.
